Qualifications:

My understanding of the proper role of government and my determination that government should be kept within proper bounds are my greatest qualifications. The difficulties our nation faces are due to our departures from the Constitution. Federal government is far too bloated. States rights and individual freedoms have been severely eroded. Economic collapse, disappearing jobs, increasing welfare rolls, government and media lies, higher taxes, all combine to feed this vicious cycle to destroy all that was good, just, and proper. Democrats, Republicans, big business, and major media have combined—purposefully—to run our country into the ground. This is not an accident! Neither Democrats nor Republicans can get us out of this mess--it is hopeless to rely on the same corrupt parties to extract us from the mess that they together created! The good news is that there is a brighter future, but it will require voters—you—to courageously choose—vote for—statesmen who understand the problems and how to fix them. See my website to learn where America went wrong and how we can restore our nation, jobs, fiscal sanity, and freedom. I'm running for your future, for my future, and for our children's future. Thank you.
